

Sauk County Sheriff's Office & Southern Police Canine Inc. Training Seminar

Featured Trainer: Mark T. Mills, President, SPCI

The Sauk County Sheriff's Office will be hosting a K-9 Handlers training seminar featuring Mark T. Mills, President, SPCI. The seminar will address the latest training techniques, street applications, and problem-solving for both the handler and the dog.

Host Agency: Sauk County Sheriff's Office
1300 Lange CT.
Baraboo, WI 53913

Date: May 20, 21, and 22, 2010
Note: The seminar will begin at 8:00 A.M. on May 20th and will conclude around noon on May 22nd.

Cost: $130.00 per team
Observers are welcome. No charge.
Class size is limited.

Hotel: Ho-Chunk Casino and Hotel
S3214 USH 12
Baraboo, WI 53913
1-800-746-2486 Ext: 7878

Rooms are $69.00 per night. (Group Rate) Bring your tax exemption paperwork to avoid the 10.5 % room tax. A block of rooms has been reserved for May 19, 20, and 21. Refer to "SAUK COUNTY CANINE CONFERENCE" for the group rate.

You are responsible for reserving your own room.

Registration: Please complete and return the attached registration form prior to April 23, 2010. Remember class size is limited so register early.

Participant confirmations will be sent out upon receipt of Registration Form and payment. A complete training packet will be mailed out to all registered teams a couple weeks prior to the seminar.

Any questions or concerns should be directed to Lt. Mike Stoddard at the Sauk County Sheriff's Office. Contact info: 608-355-3204 (Office)
608-963-9967 (Cell)
608-355-3598 (FAX)
E-mail: mstoddard@co.sauk.wi.us